He had a terrible misery across him. He has received treatment from Dr. Wilbur, and for the first time in twenty-six years can lie in bed. Death of Mr. A. C. Keenon.

Another old citizen has fallen asleep and his spirit has winged its flight to the great hereafter. Mr. Adam C. Keenon, after a long and useful life, died at his residence, near this city, Monday morning at 8 1/2 o'clock. On the 27th of December, while sitting reading in front of a large wood fire in his room, he fell asleep and one of his boots became so hot as to cause a blister to raise on his foot, which became sore and he was compelled to go to bed with it. The sore grew worse, gangrene set up, and his strong constitution began to give way. He suffered greatly for three months, but without a murmur, when death came and he sleeps the last long sleep in our beautiful City of the Dead beside the loving partner of his joys and sorrows, who preceded him to the grave some four years since.

The deceased was born at Paris, Kentucky, on the 15th of May, 1799, and consequently was in the eighty-fourth year of his age. He was elected Public Binder and came to this city to reside in 1822, and for thirty odd years was engaged in the business of book binding, his bindery being in a building on St. Clair street, where the barber shop of Henry Samuels now stands. In 1867 he retired from active business life and spent the remainder of his days upon his farm, one mile from this city, on the Louisville pike. In 1823 he married Miss Elizabeth Clark, with whom he lived happily for more than a half century. The fruits of their union was nine children, six of whom still survive him.

For more than fifty years he had been a member of the Masonic fraternity, and he was buried with the honors of the order by Frankfort Commandery, No. 4, Tuesday afternoon.

The exercises at the Christian Church Wednesday evening were quite interesting. The meeting was opened with singing and prayer, after which there was a recitation given by seven little girls of the Sunday School in splendid style. Mrs. Richard Reid, President of the Christian Woman's Board of Foreign Missions of Kentucky, then delivered an address to the Mission Band of the Church, which was listened to attentively by those present, and was elegantly read. Next came the breaking of the missionary jugs and the counting of their contents. There were fifteen jugs and their contents amounted to $54.93—the largest amount contained by any one jug being $10.93. After the breaking of the jugs a collection was taken up in the audience amounting to $9.20, which made the total amount raised for missionary purposes $64.13. The meeting was then closed with singing and prayer.

Since the meeting Wednesday night two other jugs have been sent in, which swell the total amount raised to eighty dollars.

Little Katie Banta, daughter of Mr. H. S. Banta, who resides at the Walker Stephens place, on the Louisville pike, two miles from this city, was standing by an open wood fire in the servant's room, Saturday afternoon, when her clothing took fire, and as soon as she discovered it she ran screaming into the yard. A colored man, who had gone out there to deliver a load of coal from Mr. G. B. Macklin's yard, happened to be near to where she was, ran immediately to her, tore the clothing off of her and extinguished the flames. Although nearly all her clothing and ribbon on her hair were burned she escaped unhurt.

The extension of the Forks of Elkhorn Turnpike to connect with the Cedar Turnpike, in Scott county, which has been built under the supervision of Mr. D. M. Woodson, of this city, is pronounced by persons living in its vicinity to be the best road ever built in that section.

The colored people of this city will hold a public meeting at the Court House Tuesday evening for the purpose of selecting a delegate to represent them in the educational convention which meets in this city on Thursday. All our colored citizens who have the good of their race at heart should be on hand.

The best and largest assortment of clocks at Phillip Selbert's.

A NOBLE ACT.

Mr. L. H. James, of Clover Bottom, Woodford county, has for some time been suffering with a disease on his nose which physicians call "Lupus." Mr. James has been a great sufferer, and hearing of the many cures being performed by Dr. Wilbur, went to see him and told the Doctor (in presence of several gentlemen, including a Press reporter) that he would give him $500 in advance if he would promise him a cure. Dr. Wilbur refused to take his money, and advised Mr. James to save his money for his family, as his disease was incurable. The Doctor fixed him a prescription to relieve his pain, free of charge. It is evident if Dr. Wilbur is a fraud he would have taken Mr. James' money, whether he could have cured him or not.—Lexington Press March 11th.

Mr. Willie Wright is running L. B. Oliver's vegetable wagon, he has everything in season.

A gentleman of this city went out to a party in the country, on an electioneering trip, Tuesday night, but before he started he procured a number of oranges for the ladies he expected to meet, put them in a paper sack, and left them sitting in a grocery on St. Clair street for a few moments, while he made arrangements to start, and when ready to go drove up to the door and requested a gentleman friend to step inside and get the sack for him, telling where he had left it. The sack was brought out and stowed under the buggy seat, and in due time our friend arrived at the party. After shaking hands all round he thought he would pass the fruit, so procuring the sack, he requested a friend to distribute it among the ladies with his compliments, which he proceeded to do, when it was discovered that instead of oranges the sack contained goose eggs. The wrong sack had been put in the buggy. Our friends feelings can hardly be imagined when he found that he was trying to make votes with eggs.

Let everybody attend, for it is highly spoken of by those who have heard it, and you will be certain to hear something good.

Some three months since a fine fat hog was stolen from the farm of Mr. Chas. J. Clark, near this city but the man who stole it could not be found. A few days since Officer W. P. Hudson obtained a clue to the thieves, worked up the case, and Wednesday afternoon he and Officer John Dean arrested Coley Chiles and Nelson and Dan Tompkins on the charge and lodged them in jail.

A congregational meeting of the Georgetown Presbyterian Church was held Wednesday night for the purpose of raising Rev. J. G. Hunter's salary and devising means to induce him to remain in that place and decline the call tendered him by the Presbyterian Church in this city.

A colored ex-convict, by the name of Bowman, broke into the smoke-house of Mr. Moore, who resides at the old Scaree place, a mile and a half above the city, Thursday night, and stole two hundred pounds of meat. He then came on down to Spring Hill Distillery, broke into one of the bonded warehouses, knocked the bung out of a barrel and stole some whisky, but drank so much of it that he got too drunk to get out of the house, and was caught in there yesterday morning by the watchman, on the premises, with the meat still in his possession. The police were telephoned for from this city when officers Brown and Conway went out and brought him in to jail. When taken he had a full kit of burglar's tools in his possession. He will have to answer in the United States as well as the Circuit Court for his fun.

NO CURE! NO PAY!!

ONLY CHARGE MADE IS FOR MEDICINES USED DURING TREATMENT.

DR. WILBUR, SPECIALIST.

The man who made so many remarkable cures in Lexington cures all chronic diseases. If you are doing well under the care of your own physician, do not call on me, as I only wish to treat those that cannot find relief elsewhere.

LADIES who are suffering with complaints peculiar to their sex can consult the doctor with every assurance of speedy relief and permanent cure.

Read the following flattering testimonials and be convinced:

Never laid in bed for 26 years until now.

I have not been able to lie down in bed for the last 26 years until now. I have slept every night during that time sitting up in a chair with my head leaning on a table. I consulted a great many doctors, and they told me nothing could be done for me, that I had to bear my misery until I wore out. I also had terrible misery across me, and was bloated in my limbs and abdomen. I took treatment of Dr. Wilbur and CAN NOW LIE DOWN IN BED, my misery across me is all gone, my water has changed its color, and I feel like a new man. I lived on Big Slick road, six miles from Versailles for a good many years, and everyone there knows me. My present address is WILLIAM L. MITCHELL, Lock-box 443, Lexington, Ky., March 17th, 1883.

Case of Six Weeks Standing Cured by Dr. Wilbur.

I have been troubled for several years with an all-gone feeling and a pain in my left side near my heart, that was so severe at times I thought I should lose my breath. My stomach and back also bothered me quite bad, and I also had a bad pain low down across me. I have doctored with a great many physicians in Lexington but none of them seemed to do me any good. I consulted Dr. Wilbur at the Ashland House, and he told me the cause of all my trouble, and that he could cure me in 15 weeks, and although I have only been taking his medicine about three weeks, I feel like a new woman, and I am gaining strength every day. I would advise all who are sick not to despair until you have tried Dr. Wilbur, as he can cure you. MISS AGNES MEKES, Ashland House office, March 5, 1883.

Cancer With Four Roots Drawn Out by a Plaster Without Pain.

The facts are these: For about two years I have been troubled with a bunch on my nose which gradually grew larger, and at times very painful, and began to discharge. I called on Dr. Wilbur, who immediately pronounced it a cancer or suppur, and said it could be drawn out with a plaster, which I consented to have done. The doctor applied the plaster, which commenced to draw at once, and in about fifteen minutes he removed the plaster and with a dull knife lifted the cancer out with four long roots still attached to it. I must confess it is far superior to the knife, as it gives no pain, and is fully as effectual. MRS. B. HOULIHAN, Main street, Lexington, Ky. P. S. My son, P. W. Houlihan, the stove dealer, was present, and saw the cancer, roots and all complete.

Cross-Eyes of Nine Years Made Straight in a few Minutes.

LEXINGTON, March 4th, 1883. My little niece, May Lucretia Drake Beard, has been terribly cross-eyed in both eyes for nine years (in fact ever since she was born), as every one can testify that knew her.

I took her to Dr. Wilbur, at the Ashland House, to see if he could cure them. He operated on them and in a few minutes, much to my surprise, both her eyes were made perfectly straight, and what is more strange, he made them both straight by simply one cut. I can cheerfully recommend Dr. Wilbur to anyone who may be afflicted as a very skillful physician. Shop on Short street. BLACKSMITH, P. S. Anyone can see this little girl by calling at my house on Winchester street.

A Thankful Father.

Editor Lexington Press: I deem it my duty as a man who wants to give to merit all things which are worthy, to make this statement in regard to Dr. Wilbur. My child when two months old was taken down with scarlet fever, as was my family of five children. The late Dr. Bush, being my family physician at the time, treated them. The doctor said the fever fell in my son's eye. He burned it with caustic, which resulted in the total loss of the member. For the last three months his right eye has begun to fall him. I was advised by Dr. Sweeney and Dr. Skillman to have his left eye cut out, and that I had better go to Dr. Williams, in Cincinnati, to have it done. I took him to Dr. Wilbur, who removed his left eye completely, and I am compelled to say without pain. I do not hesitate to state that Dr. Wilbur is a blessing to our city of Lexington, as my son is getting along nicely and has a good appetite, notwithstanding his having undergone such a severe operation, which I think is the only one of the kind ever performed in our city. FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT.

"Rough on Rats."

Hardin's Bottom, Henry County.

Parties are too numerous to mention. Mr. Johnson Ellis is quite sick, but is some better at this writing.

Mr. W. H. Johnson's school expired on the 9th, and from what I can learn he gave general satisfaction.

Rev. Ed. Stivers preached at the school-house in this vicinity Sunday night to quite a large and attentive audience.

Mr. Victor Way, formerly of this county but now a resident of Carroll, spent several days in this neighborhood the past week.

Mr. W. W. Hawkins, of Springfield, Ills., is now a resident of this vicinity. He is preparing to till the soil on the Hawkins farm. He was formerly a resident of Scott county.

Rev. Frank Thomas, who has care of the the Guestville Church, preached there on last Sunday and will do so again on next 3d, Lord's day. Come in and hear him, for he is a very good expounder of the scriptures.

Messrs. Baland and Curtis Evans sold their crop of tobacco, consisting of about 12,000 or 15,000 pounds per $10 per hundred to Forman & Co., Monterey. They are the champion tobacco raisers in this country.

The whistles of the steamboats ring through these hills and hollows every day, to the joy of the people. It makes them think of by gone days when the whistle of a boat was so cheering. I tell you the Fannie Freese is a handsome little boat, and she has many warm friends in this part of the world. Captain Pence is the man for us and we will ship our freight with him.

I see that there has been an educational convention called to meet in Frankfort on the 5th of April, to consider the educational situation in Kentucky, and I sincerely hope that the readers of the Roundabout, or all who feel an interest in this cause, will give it a cordial welcome. Let us turn out in such force as to convince Legislators and Congressmen that is real live, native sentiment in the State which they would do well to heed. We must organize and keep up an agitation which shall make itself felt throughout this Commonwealth and carry with such force as to bring the people in each community to vote the needed tax and to stir their Representatives at Frankfort to work diligently for the aid which in right and justice we are entitled to.

Misses Bettie and Alice Wigginton, of Elmville, were the guests of Miss Ella Hall last Sunday, as were also Messrs. Willie Wigginton and R. T. Davis.

The Elmville boys have quite a novel way of taking their girls riding. When horses are scarce they hitch themselves to a spring wagon and make things lively.

Miss Lucy Gnyle, of Minorville, Scott county, is the guest of Miss Julia Bates in our village. Miss Gnyle has captured the heart of one of our most fascinating young men.

Mr. Hiram Devour, late of our neighborhood, is with W. S. McCord, of Graiz, Owen county, and Willie P. Wigginton expects to move soon, as everything seems lonesome of late.

Miss Sallie A. Long and Mr. J. S. Robinson were the guests of Miss Ella Hall last Sunday. They speak in flattering terms of the good looking youngsters of our neighborhood.

Rev. John T. Benton preached to a large and attentive audience at Mt. Vernon Church Sunday at 11 o'clock, a. m., subject "Is baptism essential to salvation." His sermon was the best effort of his life.

John K. Hedrick has rented the old Henry farm and will remove to it in a few days and try hatching there, although it is said there can be ghosts seen there at all times through the night. Yet the wicked flee when no man pursueth.

Attorney Wm. Cromwell, of Frankfort, spent last Friday night with the family of Esquire Milton Wigginton. He speaks in flattering terms of our village and its people. Some of our young ladies think Mr. Cromwell quite good looking.

Mr. James Smith, of Truesville, Owen county, is very low with typhus fever. Mr. Richard Smith it seems is doomed to have trials grievous to be borne, as he has lost three of his children in a few years and this will be the fourth one, and Dr. Quarles said there's not much hope of his recovery. J. K. H.

George Evers, Louisville, says: "Suffered with dyspepsia and other ills, and Brown's Iron Bitters gave me permanent relief."

Ann Betsy Toomy, an aged maiden lady, who has been living in the family of Capt. John R. Gay for the past 50 or 60 years, is confined to her room and bed with no prospects of an early recovery.

It is not generally known that the venerable Capt. John R. Gay, when a young man, was distinguished as a writer and editor of no small pretensions. He was the contemporary of Amos Kendall and other noted men that distinguished themselves in that day and age of the journalistic world.

And William F. S. could stand the suspense no longer and on last Saturday night, after a hard day's work, waiting on customers, went in quest of the fair one or ones. Let this be as it may, he seems better contented now. Suppose he found them. Oh, you naughty girls, you should not stay about the river so long.

John Bates, Esq., left Monday for Gallatin county in company with his attorney, Mr. John W. Robman, to look after his lawsuit, in which some sixty or seventy thousand dollars are involved. Should he succeed, as it is thought by many he will, his brothers and sisters will doubtless recompense him handsomely for all his trouble.

This district heretofore has not been prominent in bringing forward her own citizens for position, nor in inaugurating any other project of a political or public character, not, however, because she feels no interest in matters affecting her people or the public, but solely on account of the extreme modesty of her citizens. She now, thus far in advance, desires to lay aside this modesty and suggest to the whole district and particularly to Franklin county, that in the selection of a successor to our present able and efficient Senator, the Hon. D. L. Moore, the name of one of Franklin's most worthy sons, Gen. Scott Brown, a gentleman in every way worthy and well qualified, having served the district once before with entire satisfaction to his constituents and honor to himself. We are satisfied that the people of Franklin will be glad of an opportunity to show their appreciation of him as a gentleman and Senator.

How? By getting one bottle of BROWN'S IRON BITTERS, and taking it regularly according to directions.

Mansfield, Ohio, Nov. 26, 1882.
Gentlemen:—I have suffered with pain in my side and back, and great soreness on my breast, with shooting pains all through my body, attended with great weakness, depression of spirits, and loss of appetite. I have taken several different medicines, and was treated by prominent physicians for my liver, kidneys, and spleen, but I got no relief. I thought I would try Brown's Iron Bitters; I have now taken one bottle and a half and am about well—pain in side and back all gone—soreness all out of my breast, and I have a good appetite, and am gaining in strength and flesh. I can justly be called the king of medicines.

Saved him $1,800

ADAMS, N. Y. Jan. 30, 1882.

Dr. B. J. KENDALL & Co., Gentls:—Having used a good deal of your Kendall's Spavin Cure with great success, I thought I would let you know what it has done for me. Two years ago I had a speedy cure as was ever raised in Jefferson County. When I was breaking him, he kicked over the cross bar and got fast and tore one of his hind legs all to pieces. I employed the best farriers, but they all said he was spoiled. He had a very large thoroughbred and I used two bottles of your Kendall's Spavin Cure, and it took the bunch entirely off, and he sold afterwards for $1,800 (dollars). I have used it for bone spavins and wind galls, and it has always cured completely and left the leg smooth.

It is a splendid medicine for rheumatism. I have recommended it to a good many, and they all say it does the work. I was in Witherington & Kuecland's drug store, in Adams, the other day and saw a very fine picture you sent them. I tried to buy it but could not; they said if I would write to you that you would send me one. I wish you would, and I will do you all the good I can.

Very respectfully, E. S. LYMAN.

Kendall's Spavin Cure. ON HUMAN FLESH.

Vevay, Ind., Aug. 12th, 1881.

Dr. B. J. KENDALL & Co., Gentls:—Sample of circulars received; to-day. Please send me some with my imprint, printed on one side only. The Kendall's Spavin Cure is in excellent demand with us, and not only for animals, but for human ailments also. Mr. Jos. Voria, one of the leading farmers in our country, sprained an ankle badly; and knowing the value of the remedy for horses, tried it on himself, and it did far better than he had expected. Cured the sprain in very short order.
